"Filing's done, and you don't have another appointment for half an hour." Kim said, locking the door, and dropping the key into her cleavage with a sultry smile. "Get over here, boy." She waved a long, black, whip ominously in the air. "Now!"

Skinner crawled over, kneeling at her feet with a contented sigh.

"Undress, boy. Quickly. Or do I have to give you some Personal Assistance...?" Kim's eyes gleamed wickedly as Skinner rushed to obey her command.

"Lunchtime, Kim." Holly put her head around the door. "Had a busy morning?"

"Oh, just the usual P.A. stuff..." Kim smiled.

Skinner cleared the desk, arranging his pens and papers in a neat pile on the floor.

"Clothes off, and lie on the desk. Face up." Kim commanded.

"But..." Skinner looked nervously at the door.

"Are you questioning my orders?" she asked dangerously.

"Uh, no." He swallowed, undressing swiftly.

"Good boy." Kim scratched long, red, fingernails over his nipples as she handcuffed him to the desk legs.

"Oh god..." Skinner groaned, as the 'phone interrupted them.

Kim frowned at him as she answered it. "I'm sorry, Agent Mulder, I can't put you through to A.D. Skinner. He's tied up right now..."

Chapter 3 by Xanthe

"You didn't say 'thank you' when I brought your coffee this morning." Kim advanced on Skinner menacingly, her eyes flashing.

"Didn't I?" he gulped. "I was reading one of Mulder's reports...you know how distracting they can be."

"No excuses." Kim slid into his black, leather chair, and beckoned him over her knee. "You know what happens to boys who don't say 'please' and 'thank you'."

"I'm not complaining..." Skinner yelped a few seconds later. "...but when you suggested we play the boss/secretary game, I thought it was the P.A. who was naughty, and the stern boss who delivered the spanking..."
